G. O. 13.—Recruiting.

(Specially issued, 15th February, 1877.)

Until further orders,—

I. No men are to be enlisted into the Army over 35 years of age.

II: The minimum standard of recruits for the Royal Engineers (Sappers) is raised from 5 ft. 5½ in. to 5 ft. 6 in.

III. G. O. 44, 56 and 97, of 1876, are hereby cancelled; and so much of Section II. (Conditions of Enlistment) of Appendix F to G. O. 73 of that year, as directs that "short-service" gunner recruits for the Royal Artillery, sapper recruits for the Royal Engineers, and "short-service" recruits for the Brigade of Foot Guards, and for the Infantry of the Line, may be taken up to 30 years of age, will be amended accordingly.

G. O. 14.—Musketry Instruction.

In order to improve the target practice of the Army, and increase the interest taken in the annual competition by causing every shot in individual firing to directly influence both the "figure of merit" and the award of prizes, his Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has approved of the following alterations in musketry instruction taking effect from the commencement of the ensuing course. The "Rifle Exercises and Musketry Instructions" in the possession of the troops will be amended accordingly.

Trained Soldiers.

I. Trained soldiers will in future fire at the present authorized distances for individual firing—viz., from 200 to 800 yards, without any intermediate classification.

II. To guard against an indifferent shot wasting both time and ammunition at the longer ranges, no soldier will be permitted to fire with his company and compete for prizes until, in a recruits' course, he qualifies as a first class shot.

III. At the conclusion of the individual firing a classification will take place, when all men obtaining 120* points and upwards will be classified as 1st Class, those scoring 80†, but failing to obtain 120* points, as 2nd Class, and those failing to obtain 80† points as 3rd Class shots.

IV. The term "classes" is retained to define the distances and size of targets at which the practice takes place, and which remain as at present; the term "period" becoming obsolete as far as the course for the trained soldier is concerned.

V. Five rounds will be expended in each of these practices, instead of 10 as heretofore.

VI. Twenty rounds will be expended in this practice, or in India in "field-firing," when the nature of the ground will permit. Skirmishing need not be limited as at present to between 400 and 200 yards; but the former distance may, when the range will permit, be extended, at the discretion of officers commanding, to 500 or 600 yards.

VII. The percentage of 3rd Class shots and the average of volley firing no longer enter into the calculation of the "Figure of Merit," which will in future be the average of the individual firing, the total points obtained being divided by the number of men who commence the practice at 200 yards, including any men who cannot see up to that distance.

† Snider 70.

VIII. Trained soldiers will judge in the three classes without any intermediate classification.

At the conclusion of the practice a classification will take place, when those men who obtain 30 points and upwards will be classified as 1st Class, those obtaining 24 points, but failing to obtain 30, as 2nd Class, and those failing to obtain 24 points, as 3rd Class judges of distance.

IX. Target practice.—Prizes will in future be awarded on the aggregate number of points obtained in individual firing.

All men who obtain 140* points and upwards will qualify as marksmen.

Ties will be decided as follows:—

1st. By the points obtained in the 1st Class.

2nd. By the points obtained in the 2nd Class.

3rd. By the points obtained in the 3rd Class.

4th. By the highest number of points obtained in judging-distance practice.

5th. By judging-distance practice in the order laid down.

X. Judging-distance practice.—Prizes will in future be awarded on the aggregate number of points obtained in this practice.

All men who obtain 36† points and upwards will be eligible to receive prizes.

Ties will be decided as follows:—

1st. By the points obtained in the 1st Class.

2nd. By the points obtained in the 2nd Class.

3rd. By the points obtained in the 3rd Class.

4th. By the highest number of points obtained in target practice.

5th. By target practice in the order laid down.

Recruit.

XI. The number of points in target practice required to pass out of the 2nd Class is reduced from 40 to 30; in every other respect the recruits' course of musketry instruction remains as at present laid down.

XII. Recruits who fail to pass into the 1st Class at final classification will not be exercised as trained soldiers with their companies, but will repeat the recruits' course of drill and individual firing annually (or oftener at the discretion of commanding officers if other duties permit) until they are classified as first class shots, and thus qualify to practice with their companies, and compete for prizes.†

G. O. 15.—Embarkations.

Section 17, paragraph 38, "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," is to be amended as follows:—

"All soldiers' families are invariably to be inspected and furnished with a health certificate before being allowed to embark, whether on coast voyages or for foreign stations. This inspection is to be made by a medical officer at the station from whence they are originally moved, but in exceptional and isolated cases of women or children arriving at the port of embarkation without having such a health certificate, they must be inspected and receive one from a medical officer before they go on board. General officers are held responsible that these certificates are, in all cases, examined by the staff officer superintending the embarkation."

"Soldiers' wives near their confinement are not to be embarked in her Majesty's Indian troopships proceeding via Suez to India, nor in mail or contract steamers or other vessels on short voyages, such as to or from the Mediterranean, West Indies, British North America, &c., or on coastwise voyages at home. The husbands are to be detained with them."

G. O. 16.—Arms.

Officers of the Army who may wish to provide themselves with pistols are informed that if they procure Adams' revolvers, of either of the patterns described below, they will be in a position to obtain service ammunition for them from the stores of an Army in the field.

* Snider 110.

† Cavalry 24.

† This order will not apply to recruits who complete their training on or before the 31st March, 1877.

No. 1.—The Service Pistol (Mark III.).

A breech-loading self-cocking revolver, six chambers, parts interchangeable. Length of barrel, 6 inches; length of chambers, 1.85 inches; weight, 2 lbs. 4 oz.; calibre, 0.45 inch.

No. 2.—A pistol identical with the above, except in length of barrel and weight.

Length of barrel, 4 inches; weight, 2 lbs. 2 oz.

These pistols are marked "Adams' Patent," and bear a trade mark as under:—

They may be obtained from John Adams, Managing Director, Adams' Patent Small Arms Company Limited, 391, Strand.

G. O. 17.—Fines for Drunkenness.

I. From and after the 1st April next a fine for drunkenness will not of itself carry with it an entry in the regimental defaulter book, unless accompanied by some other punishment entailing such entry. Section 6, paragraph 23, and section 23, paragraph 31d, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," are to be amended accordingly.

II. In publishing this order to the Army the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires to draw the special attention of general officers commanding to section 5, paragraph 6, of the regulations above referred to; and his Royal Highness trusts that the discretion now allowed to commanding officers will be exercised with judgment and firmness, and that serious or repeated acts of drunkenness will, in all cases, be dealt with so as to entail regimental entry.

G. O. 18.—Recruiting.

I. Until further orders, the minimum standard of recruits for the brigade of Foot Guards is raised from 5 ft. 7 in. to 5 ft. 8 in., with a chest measurement of not less than 34 in.

II. Recruits of 5 ft. 10 in., or upwards, must measure 35 in. round the chest, as at present fixed.

III. Paragraph 17 of Appendix F to G. O. 73 of 1876, is hereby cancelled.

G. O. 19.—Routes.

I. Referring to section 16, paragraph 18, "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," general officers commanding districts in Great Britain and Ireland are authorized to issue routes for the removal from civil and military prisons of prisoners belonging to corps in their command, whose terms of imprisonment expire on and after the 1st April next, whether the prison be in their district or not; and officers commanding corps will be held responsible that application is made by them to general officers commanding districts for the routes required for men returning to duty from imprisonment, in sufficient time to prevent the men being detained at the prisons after the expiration of their sentences.

II. General officers commanding districts are henceforth authorized to give routes also for the proceeding of court-martial witnesses, both in and beyond stations in their commands; also for escorts,—except in the cases of deserters committed by the civil power.

III. Care will be taken that men are ordered to proceed by the most economical route consistent with the nature of the duty to be performed.

G. O. 20.—Returns.

I. The monthly nominal return of soldiers registered for discharge by indulgence, W. O. Form 959, is no longer required.

II. Section 22, paragraph 22, "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," is to be amended accordingly.

G. O. 21.—Lasso Equipment.

With reference to section 12, paragraph 50, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873," it is notified that instructions for the use of the "Lasso Equipment" in Cavalry Regiments have been approved and will shortly be issued.

By command.

2. A report will be made by every corps to the War Office showing in detail the number of men who were married with leave before the above date, and who are awaiting absorption in the married establishment.

3. The married establishment of the Household Cavalry and Army Hospital Corps will form an exception to paragraph 1 (c.) of Clause 165, Army Circulars, 1876, and will, as heretofore, be seven per cent. of trumpeters, drummers, and rank and file, calculated upon the establishment of the corps.

2. The necessaries of such men, being their own property, will be left in their possession, with the exception of their forage caps. A pair of boots, for the use of each man on discharge, will also be left.

3. Civilian clothing will be supplied by governors of prisons to recruits convicted by the civil power of fraudulent enlistment, and ordered to be discharged on the termination of their imprisonment, and such recruits will be otherwise dealt with as laid down in paragraphs 1 and 2.

4. The uniform clothing, as detailed in paragraph 1, of men discharged direct from a regiment or corps, will be taken into the regimental store, and in lieu thereof each man will be supplied with a cap, jacket, and trousers of civilian clothing.

5. The suits of civilian clothing will either be obtained from the Director of Clothing, on demands, showing the articles required and the dates of discharge of the men, being forwarded, accompanied by size-rolls, or they will be provided locally by commanding officers.

7. A great coat or cloak will not be taken away by any of these men on final discharge.

8. Men sent home from India for discharge will, as regards their clothing, be treated as follows:—

(a.) In the case of men sent home in private ships, the uniform clothing will be taken from them prior to embarkation, and they will then be supplied in lieu with the civilian clothing. Each man will also be supplied with a great-coat or cloak for use on the voyage, which coat or cloak, on arrival of the man in this country, will be taken possession of by the disembarking officer, who will obtain from the Director of Clothing instructions as to its disposal.

(b.) In the case of men sent home in troopships the uniform clothing will be worn until they arrive in this country. The clothing, as well as the great-coat or cloak, in use by each man, will be taken possession of by the disembarking officer, who will, as before stated, obtain instructions as to its disposal, and the plain clothes placed on board ship in India will be given to the men in lieu.

9. Men sent home from other foreign stations for immediate discharge will be treated, as regards their clothing, in the same manner as those sent home from India.

10. Civilian clothing will not be supplied before embarkation to men sent home from foreign stations (other than India) to complete their term of imprisonment in civil and military prisons at home, and who are to be discharged from the service at the termination thereof.

11. Civilian clothing for men sent home from foreign stations (other than India) for immediate discharge, will be demanded annually by the senior Commissariat officer, from the Director of Clothing, or will be purchased on the spot at a cost not exceeding twelve shillings a suit; the amount being charged as directed in paragraph 3, Clause 3, Army Circulars, 1874. The clothing will be issued under instructions from the general or other officer commanding at the station.

12. The officer present at the disembarkation of the men referred to in paragraphs 8, 9 and 10, will make a report to the Director of Clothing, showing, according to the Form given in the Appendix, page 9 [not printed in Army List], the disposal of the clothing of each man.

G. O. 22.—Royal Artillery.

I. It having been found advisable, for purposes of better administration and relief, to make certain alterations in the existing organization of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, the arrangements herein set forth will take effect from the 1st July next.

II. The regiment will be divided into—

3 Brigades of Horse Artillery.
6 " of Field Artillery.
5 " of Garrison Artillery.
1 " of Coast Artillery.

III. The head-quarters of these brigades, except Coast Brigade, will be permanently located in the several districts at home as follows, viz.:—

Royal Horse Artillery.

A Brigade, Head-Quarters ...	...	...	...	...	Woolwich
B " " ...	...	...	...	...	Dublin
C " " ...	...	...	...	...	Aldershot

Field Artillery.

1st Brigade, Head-Quarters ...	...	...	...	...	Woolwich
2nd " " ...	...	...	...	...	Sheffield
3rd " " ...	...	...	...	...	Newbridge
4th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Leith Fort.
5th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Woolwich
6th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Colchester

Garrison Artillery.

7th Brigade, Head-Quarters ...	...	...	...	...	Portsmouth

9th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Dover
10th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Cork
11th " " ...	...	...	...	...	Sheerness

IV. In thus assigning to each brigade a permanent head-quarters, it is to be distinctly understood that Woolwich, for so many years the seat of all the scientific and professional institutions of the corps, is still to be looked upon as the head-quarters of the whole regiment, and its great centre of instruction.

V. The dépôt brigade, as at present constituted, will be broken up; and each of the brigades specified above (except the Coast Brigade) will have a dépôt battery belonging to it, which will be permanently stationed at the several head-quarters of brigades. These dépôt batteries will train all recruits posted to them, furnish all drafts intended for the batteries of their respective brigades serving abroad, receive all invalids and men sent home from foreign stations for discharge, or to be passed to Army Reserve and, in short, perform all the duties pertaining to a dépôt for their respective brigades.

VI. The foreign reliefs of both lieutenant colonels and batteries will be carried out, by roster of the three branches of the regiment—horse, field, and garrison—and not by whole brigades as at present.

VII. The staff of the brigades serving in India and the Colonies will be abolished, the local duties being performed in the Colonies by such acting staff as may be necessary at each station, and in India under such arrangements as may be decided upon in consultation with, and under the authority of, the Secretary of State for India in Council.

VIII. The following is a general outline of the new system:—

a. The Artillery in each military district at home will be under the command of a regimental colonel, who will also have the administrative command of the brigade, the headquarters of which are stationed in his district. This officer, who, in the larger districts, will be assisted by a brigade major, in addition to the usual staff, will be responsible for everything connected with the Artillery within his district, both personal and matériel; and on all matters of interior economy will communicate direct with the Adjutant General, except on questions of discipline, which will, in conformity with her Majesty's Regulations, be referred to the general officer commanding.

b. In Ireland, the Artillery in each district will be under the command of a regimental colonel, assisted by the usual staff; the Assistant Adjutant General of Royal Artillery in that country will therefore be attached to the staff of the general officer commanding the forces, as his executive staff officer for Artillery purposes.

c. As the whole of the batteries of a brigade will in no case be serving in the same district as its head-quarters, it is to be distinctly understood that all the batteries of whatever branch or brigade, serving in the same military district, will for all purposes be wholly under the command of the senior Artillery officer in such district, furnishing to the officer commanding their several brigade head-quarters such returns only as are necessary to keep up the records of their brigades.

Returns.

d. Colonels commanding districts and brigades will furnish monthly to the Adjutant General two returns, one accounting for all the Artillery in the district, the other for the entire brigade at home and abroad.

e. Batteries serving out of the district in which their brigade head-quarters may be stationed, will furnish direct to the commanding officer of the brigade, such returns as will enable him to complete his brigade monthly return.

f. Correspondence and returns connected with the clothing, battery stores, and payment of the men, as well as the returns before referred to, will be sent direct to the different departments, &c., by officers commanding batteries; but letters and documents on all other subjects must pass through the lieutenant colonel commanding divisions to the officer commanding the Artillery in the district in which the batteries may be serving, for record or transmission to other departments.

g. A weekly state of increase and decrease is to be rendered by the officer commanding in each district at home, made up from the latest information received, and posted so as to reach the Adjutant General's office by mid-day on the Monday of each week.

Promotion of Non-commissioned Officers.

A. The promotion of non-commissioned officers to be made in each battery up to the rank of corporal, and throughout the batteries of the same branch, serving in the same district, to the ranks of serjeant and battery staff serjeant. For the superior positions of serjeant major and quartermaster serjeant, at brigade head-quarters, the promotion is to be given amongst the battery staff serjeants of the brigade at home and abroad.

Demands.

d. All demands for clothing, equipment, and battery stores are to be prepared and put forward to the several departments by officers commanding batteries direct; those relating to the district armaments and stores will be prepared and sent in by officers commanding districts.

Employed Men.

j. Officers commanding are strictly enjoined to see that the "employed men" sanctioned for the district are, as far as possible, equally borne amongst the batteries serving therein, and not upon the dépôt battery at head-quarters, the establishment of which has been calculated only for its particular function in receiving men from abroad, and supplying the necessary drafts for India and the Colonies.

Recruiting.

k. Recruiting will be carried on as at present at each brigade head-quarters, and at other stations occupied by batteries of the regiment, under the orders of the Adjutant General, the recruits so raised being posted to service batteries and the dépôts, as the necessities of the service require. Recruits raised by the agencies under the officers commanding Infantry sub-districts will be posted to the several dépôt batteries under such orders as may from time to time be issued by the Adjutant General.

Riding Establishment.

l. The riding establishment will be stationed at the head-quarters of the regiment as heretofore. The general instruction of the regiment in equitation will be carried out under the orders of the superintendent, who will be responsible for an uniform system being observed throughout the corps. Non-commissioned officers from out-stations will be periodically received and trained as rough-riders, and all general courses of instruction of equitation will be gone through at this establishment.

Remount Establishment.

m. The remount establishment will be located at Woolwich under the inspector and purchaser of horses, and will receive all remounts intended for the regiment in Great Britain.

n. The inspector will be assisted by a captain, who will conduct the interior economy of the establishment, and be responsible for its discipline under the general officer commanding the district.

District Staff.

o. All non-commissioned officers and men permanently employed in situations connected with the garrison at Woolwich, and the men composing the bands of the regiment, will belong to the "District Staff."

p. The head-quarters of the district staff at Woolwich will be placed under a lieutenant colonel, and attached for pay and clothing to the division of the Coast Brigade there serving.

Regimental Numbers.

q. The non-commissioned officers and men of each brigade will be numbered throughout, commencing with number one, and no alteration is to be made therein whilst a man continues to serve in the same brigade.

Brigades at Woolwich.

r. Officers commanding brigades at Woolwich, including the riding establishment, district staff, &c., are to be regarded in the same manner as officers commanding districts, for purposes of command, administration, promotion of non-commissioned officers, &c. Questions on interior economy being referred to the Adjutant General, as directed in the case of districts.

IX. There are many points of minor detail not touched upon in this order, which will be treated of in Regimental Orders.

G. O. 23.—Leave of Absence.

The following will be substituted for Section 13, paragraph 19, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1873:—

19. When officers serving with regiments on foreign stations apply for leave of absence, to enable them to return home on account of their private affairs, their applications will be accompanied by a statement of the period during which they have served abroad; and they will have to sign a declaration to the following effect, viz. :—

"I do hereby declare that I will re-join for duty, at my own expense, within the period for which leave of absence may be granted me; and I further declare that if, during the period of my leave of absence, I retire from the Service and receive the price of my commission, exchange, or am placed upon temporary half pay, or am made supernumerary in my regiment (except to serve as an adjutant of Auxiliary Forces), I will hold myself responsible for the payment of the passage of the officer who may be ordered abroad in my place."

G. O. 24.—Retirements.

Applications from officers commanding regiments and brigade depôts for permission to retire, or to exchange, are to be transmitted to the Military Secretary, through the general officers commanding the districts or stations where the officers proposing to retire are serving.

G. O. 25.—Regimental Books.

The information required by Section 28, paragraph 50, of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1878," is invariably to be furnished by chaplains to the Forces or officiating clergymen in the manner therein directed, and when no births, marriages or deaths have occurred during the regular half-year or a broken period, the prescribed returns are to be transmitted with the word nil inserted therein.

By command.

C. H. ELLICE, Adj. Gen.
